

The Annual Science Reports for 1985 – in some cases the fiscal year, in others, the calendar year – are appearing from the Regions and from the cooperative park studies units at the various universities throughout the country. They constitute a fairly definitive reference for the research activities underway throughout the System. If you are interested in a particular Region or CPSU, contact the Regional Chief Scientist for help in obtaining the information you seek.