

NPS Water Resource Professionals Meeting 2010

Save the Date!

When: February 9-11, 2010

Where: Fort Collins, CO

Who: NPS Water and Aquatic Professionals and Park Aquatic Resource Managers

Join us at our biennial meeting to share on-going and emerging park issues in water/aquatic resource management, and to foster coordination and communication with your professional colleagues.

Share your aquatic resource protection projects with your peers. Learn what others have done to solve issues with widespread threats to aquatic wildlife in our national park units. Take home new ideas to improve your respective projects and programs to preserve and protect park aquatic resources for future generations.

Be sure to take advantage of this opportunity to interact professionally and personally with your NPS water colleagues.

Featuring Guest Plenary Speaker Dr. Robert Glennon.

Robert Glennon is the Morris K. Udall Professor of Law and Public Policy in the Rogers College of Law at the University of Arizona. A recipient of two National Science Foundation grants, he serves as Water Policy Advisor to Pima County, Arizona; as a member of American Rivers' Science and Technical Advisory Committee; and as a commentator and analyst for various television and radio programs. For full biography click here.

Dr. Glennon will be discussing his new book, Unquenchable: America's Water Crisis and What To Do About It. In his book, Dr. Glennon addresses the alarming water issues facing America today and into the future. Don't miss this thought provoking and compelling talk on America's water crisis.
